🛒 What you need

FROM THE STORE

- ☐ about 2 lb Flat iron steak
- ☐ 1 bag Alexia garlic parmesan crinkle fries
- ☐ 3 cloves Garlic, smashed
- ☐ 3 Tbsp Salted butter

FROM THE PANTRY

- ☐ 1 Tbsp Vegetable or olive oil
- ☐ Kosher salt and coarse black pepper
- ☐ few sprigs Thyme or rosemary, if we have it

⚡ First: Steak out of the fridge 30 min before; turn the fan on, it'll smoke.

GEAR

Cast-iron skillet · Sheet pan · Meat thermometer · Cutting board

🔥 Let's cook

1. Take the steak out 30 minutes early. Pat it very dry and salt it well on both sides. ⏱️ 30 min
2. Oven to the fries' temperature. Spread the fries in one layer on a sheet pan so they crisp. 🧒 Kids can do this
3. Bake the fries, flipping once. ⏱️ 20 min
4. With 12 minutes left on the fries, heat a cast-iron skillet over high until smoking. Add oil, then the steak. Don't move it for 4 minutes. ⏱️ 4 min
5. Flip, add butter, garlic and herbs. Tilt the pan and spoon the foaming butter over the steak until 130°F inside for medium-rare. ⏱️ 3–5 min
6. Rest the steak on a board 8 minutes. Pour the garlic butter over the top.
7. Slice thin against the grain. Season with pepper and serve with the fries. 🧒 Kids can do this

CHEF'S SECRET

Dry steak + a smoking-hot pan + don't touch it. Then let it rest 8 minutes. Skip the rest and the juice ends up on the board instead of in the steak.

DINNER · FLIP SIDE

Steakhouse Steak & Fries

👨‍🍳 Kitchen crew: kid jobs

- [ ] Spread the fries out so no two touch
- [ ] Read the meat thermometer and call the number
- [ ] Pat the steak dry with paper towels
- [ ] Set the table and pour the drinks

Knives, the stove and the oven: a grown-up stays right there. Steps marked 🧒 Kids can do this on the front are theirs to own.

⏰ MAKE IT AHEAD

Salt the steak in the morning and leave it uncovered in the fridge: it seasons deeper and sears better.

🥡 LEFTOVERS

Steak salad on spring mix, or steak and cheese on a demi baguette.

🔁 SWAP IT

- Sirloin (i286) or ribeye (i430)
- Potato puffs or sweet potato fries

🍽️ SERVE IT WITH

A Caesar salad kit or green beans
