GEAR

Skillet or grill pan · Box grater · Clean dish towel

🔥 Let's cook

1. Marinate: chicken with 2 Tbsp oil, juice of 1 lemon, 2 cloves grated garlic, oregano, 1 tsp salt and pepper. 15 minutes is plenty. ⏱️ 15 min
2. Tzatziki: grate 2 cucumbers, squeeze out the water in a towel, then stir into the yogurt with 1 grated garlic clove, chopped dill, a squeeze of lemon and salt. 🧒 Kids can do this
3. Slice the tomatoes and the rest of the cucumbers. 🧒 Kids can do this
4. Cook the chicken in a hot skillet or grill pan over medium-high until 165°F inside. ⏱️ 5–6 min/side
5. Rest 5 minutes, then slice.
6. Warm the naan in the oven or directly in the skillet. ⏱️ 2 min
7. Build: naan, a big spoon of tzatziki, chicken, tomatoes, cucumbers, lemon. 🧒 Kids can do this

CHEF'S SECRET

Squeeze the grated cucumber hard in a towel. Wet cucumber makes thin, watery tzatziki; dry cucumber makes it thick and restaurant-good.

👩‍🍳 Kitchen crew: kid jobs

- [ ] Stir up the tzatziki and taste it
- [ ] Pick and chop the dill with kid scissors
- [ ] Warm and stack the naan

Knives, the stove and the oven: a grown-up stays right there. Steps marked 🧒 Kids can do this on the front are theirs to own.

⏰ MAKE IT AHEAD

Tzatziki keeps 3 days and gets better. Marinate the chicken in the morning.

🥡 LEFTOVERS

Chicken + tzatziki over rice or greens, or tucked in a wrap for lunch.

🔁 SWAP IT

- Naan-sters dippers for the girls
- Plain skyr instead of Nounos

🍽️ SERVE IT WITH

Castelvetrano or Kalamata olives, feta if we have it
