GEAR

2 sheet pans · Big bowl · Meat thermometer

🔥 Let's cook

1. Heat the oven to 425°F with two sheet pans inside (hot pans = crispy bottoms). ⏱️ 10 min
2. Toss the sweet potatoes with 2 Tbsp oil, salt and paprika. Roast on one pan for 10 minutes first. ⏱️ 10 min
3. Meanwhile toss the chicken with 1 Tbsp oil, garlic, garlic powder, paprika, salt and pepper. 🧒 Kids can do this
4. Toss the broccoli with the last oil and a pinch of salt. 🧒 Kids can do this
5. Stir the potatoes and push them to one side. Add the chicken to that pan and the broccoli to the second pan. Roast 15–18 minutes until the chicken is 165°F and the broccoli edges are dark. ⏱️ 18 min
6. Squeeze the lemon over everything, shower with parmesan, and drizzle a little honey on the sweet potatoes. 🧒 Kids can do this
7. Pack a lunch box before serving.

CHEF'S SECRET

Don't crowd the pans. Give everything space and preheat the pans: that's the difference between steamed and roasted.

Knives, the stove and the oven: a grown-up stays right there. Steps marked 🧒 Kids can do this on the front are theirs to own.

⏰ MAKE IT AHEAD

Cut the sweet potatoes and broccoli the night before; keep in zip bags in the fridge.

Great cold or reheated for lunch; or wrap it in a tortilla with ranch.

🔁 SWAP IT

- Chicken thighs (juicier, add 5 minutes)
- Broccoli florets bag (i055) to skip chopping

🍽️ SERVE IT WITH

Nothing else needed; add naan if you want bread
