GEAR

Big skillet · Sheet pan · Potato masher

🔥 Let's cook

1. Poke the sweet potatoes with a fork and microwave 8–10 minutes until soft, turning once. ⏱️ 10 min
2. Scoop out the insides into a bowl. Mash with cumin, chili powder, salt and a squeeze of lime. 🧒 Kids can do this
3. Stir in the black beans, lightly smashing some. 🧒 Kids can do this
4. Spread the filling on half of each tortilla, add cheese, fold over. 🧒 Kids can do this
5. Cook in a buttered skillet over medium, 2–3 minutes a side, pressing down, until golden and melty. ⏱️ 12 min
6. Keep finished ones warm on a sheet pan in a 250°F oven. Cut in wedges; serve with sour cream, salsa and avocado.

👨‍🍳 CHEF'S SECRET

Microwave the sweet potatoes instead of roasting: soft in 10 minutes, and the filling is creamy enough to glue everything together.

DINNER · FLIP SIDE

Black Bean & Sweet Potato Quesadillas

👩‍🍳 Kitchen crew: kid jobs

- [ ] Scoop and mash the sweet potato
- [ ] Make a quick guac: mash avocado with lime and salt
- [ ] Fill and fold the quesadillas
- [ ] Cut wedges with a pizza cutter (cooled a bit)

Knives, the stove and the oven: a grown-up stays right there. Steps marked 🧒 Kids can do this on the front are theirs to own.

⏰ MAKE IT AHEAD

Make the filling up to 3 days ahead.

🥡 LEFTOVERS

Re-crisp in a dry skillet or air fryer; the filling also makes a great lunch bowl with rice.

🔁 SWAP IT

- Add shredded chicken for meat eaters
- Pepper jack for heat

🍽️ SERVE IT WITH

Salsa, sour cream and a simple salad or street corn

⏱️ Game plan: everything lands at once

35 min out	Poke the sweet potatoes; microwave 8–10 min. Oven to 250°F.
