GEAR

Big skillet · Sheet pan · Big mixing bowl · Zip bag

🔥 Let's cook

1. Make the rice by the box. Thaw the corn in a strainer under warm water. 🧒 Kids can do this ⏱️ 5 min
2. Pat the chicken dry and rub with the seasoning and a little oil. Cook in a skillet over medium-high, 6–7 minutes a side, until 165°F inside. Rest 5 minutes, then shred with two forks. ⏱️ 20 min
3. In a big bowl mix the chicken, rice, beans, corn and half the cheese. Taste for salt. 🧒 Kids can do this
4. Warm the tortillas 20 seconds in the microwave so they don't crack. Down the middle of each: a line of cheese, a scoop of filling, then a handful of crushed chips right before rolling. 🧒 Kids can do this
5. Fold in the sides and roll up tight. Set seam side down. 🧒 Kids can do this
6. Fry seam side down in a thin layer of oil over medium until golden, 2–3 minutes a side. Keep them warm on a sheet pan in a 250°F oven while you finish. ⏱️ 12 min
7. Cut each in half on an angle. Serve with sour cream, mashed avocado and salsa.

CHEF'S SECRET

Add the chips at the last second before rolling so they stay crunchy, and start frying seam side down: it seals the roll so nothing falls out.

DINNER · FLIP SIDE

Dad's Crunchy Burrito Roll-Ups

👩‍🍳 Kitchen crew: kid jobs

- [ ] Crush the chips in a zip bag (best job in the house)
- [ ] Assembly line: cheese, filling, chips, roll
- [ ] Mix the filling in the big bowl
- [ ] Mash the avocado with a fork and a squeeze of lime

Knives, the stove and the oven: a grown-up stays right there. Steps marked 🧒 Kids can do this on the front are theirs to own.

⏰ MAKE IT AHEAD

Cook and shred the chicken and make the rice the day before. Roll right before frying.

🥡 LEFTOVERS

Re-crisp in a 400°F oven or the air fryer for 8 minutes; microwaving makes them soft.

🔁 SWAP IT

- Rotisserie chicken in a pinch (Dad prefers the whole breasts)
- Pepper jack for a little heat

🍽️ SERVE IT WITH

Alexia street corn or a simple salad
