GEAR

Wok or big skillet · Rice cooker or pot · Sharp knife

🔥 Let's cook

1. Rice on first (it's done when dinner is). ⏱️ 20 min
2. Slice the steak very thin against the grain (15 minutes in the freezer makes it easy). Toss with 1 Tbsp soy and 1 Tbsp cornstarch. ⏱️ 5 min
3. Sauce: whisk the rest of the soy, the brown sugar, sesame oil, 1 Tbsp cornstarch and the water. 🧒 Kids can do this
4. Heat 1 Tbsp oil in a wok or big skillet over high. Add the broccoli and 3 Tbsp water; cover and steam-fry 3 minutes. Tip out. ⏱️ 3 min
5. Add 2 Tbsp oil. Sear the beef in two batches, 1–2 minutes each, without crowding. ⏱️ 4 min
6. Lower the heat, add garlic and ginger for 30 seconds, then the sauce. It thickens in a minute.
7. Toss the beef and broccoli back in to coat. Serve over rice. 🧒 Kids can do this

CHEF'S SECRET

Sear the beef in two batches in a really hot pan. Crowd it and it steams gray; give it room and you get those browned, takeout-style edges.
