GEAR

Nonstick skillet · Silicone spatula · Mixing bowl

🔥 Let's cook

1. Crack the eggs into a bowl, add the cottage cheese and a pinch of salt, and whisk well. 🧒 Kids can do this
2. Melt the butter in a nonstick skillet over medium-low.
3. Add the spinach (if using) and stir 30 seconds until it wilts.
4. Pour in the eggs. Stir slowly with a spatula, pushing big soft curds to the middle. ⏱️ 3–4 min
5. Pull the pan off when the eggs still look a little wet; they finish on the plate.
6. Pepper on top and serve with toast. 🧒 Kids can do this

CHEF'S SECRET

Low heat and pull them early. Cottage cheese melts into the eggs and keeps them custardy instead of rubbery.
