1. Shred or chop the chicken. Toss it with the beans, taco seasoning and lime. 🧒 Kids can do this
2. Stir the salsa into the sour cream for a quick sauce.
3. Warm the tortillas 15 seconds in the microwave so they roll without cracking.
4. Spread sauce down the middle, then cheese, chicken-bean mix and lettuce. 🧒 Kids can do this
5. Fold in the sides and roll tight. Cut in half on an angle. 🧒 Kids can do this
6. For lunchboxes: wrap each half in foil and pack with an ice pack.

CHEF'S SECRET

Put the cheese down first, right on the sauce. It acts like a wall so the wrap doesn't get soggy by lunchtime.
