GEAR

Sheet pan + parchment · Pizza cutter · Fork · Pastry brush

🔥 Let's cook

1. Heat the oven to 400°F. Line a sheet pan with parchment.
2. Cook the apples with butter, brown sugar, cinnamon and a squeeze of lemon over medium for 6 minutes. Stir in the cornstarch, cook 1 minute, then cool. ⏱️ 8 min
3. Cut each pastry sheet into 8 rectangles (16 total). 🧒 Kids can do this
4. Spoon filling onto 8 of them, leaving a border. Brush the edges with beaten egg and top with the other 8. 🧒 Kids can do this
5. Press the edges with a fork, poke the tops 3 times, and brush with egg. 🧒 Kids can do this
6. Bake 18–20 minutes until puffed and deep golden. Cool 10 minutes. ⏱️ 20 min
7. Whisk the powdered sugar and milk; drizzle over the tarts. 🧒 Kids can do this

CHEF'S SECRET

Cool the filling all the way before filling. Warm filling melts the butter in the pastry and you lose the flakes.

👩‍🍳 Kitchen crew: kid jobs

- [ ] Cut the pastry with a pizza cutter
- [ ] Crimp the edges with a fork
- [ ] Spoon in the filling (not too much!)
- [ ] Whisk and drizzle the glaze

Knives, the stove and the oven: a grown-up stays right there. Steps marked 🧒 Kids can do this on the front are theirs to own.

⏰ MAKE IT AHEAD

Freeze unbaked tarts on a tray, then bag them. Bake from frozen, add 5 minutes.

🥡 LEFTOVERS

Keep 2 days in a container; re-crisp in the toaster oven.

🔁 SWAP IT

- Ham & cheese version: deli ham + cheddar instead of apples (Mom's idea)
- Bonne Maman preserves for a quick filling
