Pizza Party

Everybody stretches their own pizza, sauces it, tops it, and bakes it on a hot pan.

⏰ Heads-up: 1 hour before: take the dough out of the fridge so it stretches easily.

🧺 The must-haves

Put these on the counter before you start. Out of one? Use the swap next to it. That's it, keep going.

☐ Pizza dough	Out? pizza crust or naan for a 10-minute version
☐ Rao's marinara	Out? any jar of pasta sauce
☐ Shredded mozzarella	Out? any melty cheese we have
☐ Pepperoni	Out? deli meat, or just cheese

✨ If we have them: grated parmesan, oregano, garlic powder, hot honey for the grown-ups. Skip any of these.

🔥 How it goes

1. Pull the must-haves onto the counter. Oven to 475°F with a sheet pan inside. ⏱️ 30 min
2. Cut the dough into 4 balls. Press and stretch each one thin on a floured counter.
3. Spread a little sauce on each, leaving a border. Cheese, then pepperoni.
4. Slide onto the hot pan (parchment is easiest). Bake until the crust is deep golden and the cheese bubbles. ⏱️ 10–12 min
5. Rest 2 minutes, then cut.

🔑 THE ONE THING THAT MATTERS
Heat the pan in the oven first. A hot pan gives a crisp bottom.

✅ IT'S DONE WHEN
Crust is deep golden and the cheese is bubbling.

🛟 Plan B: Dough won't cooperate? Make naan pizzas: same toppings, 8 minutes.
