SERVES

⏰ Heads-up: Ribeye into the freezer 30–40 minutes before you slice it.

🧺 The must-haves

Put these on the counter before you start. Out of one? Use the swap next to it. That's it, keep going.

☐ Ribeye steak	Out? sirloin, or deli roast beef warmed in the pan
☐ Onions	Out? bell peppers or mushrooms
☐ American cheese	Out? provolone or any sliced cheese
☐ Rolls	Out? hoagie rolls or toasted bread

✨ If we have them: bell pepper, butter, ketchup, hot peppers. Skip any of these.

🔥 How it goes

1. Pull the must-haves onto the counter. Slice the half-frozen steak as thin as you can. ⏱️ 10 min
2. Cook the onions in butter over medium until soft and sweet. Set aside. ⏱️ 10 min
3. Toast the split rolls cut side down in the pan.
4. High heat, a little oil, steak in one layer with salt and pepper. Sear 1 minute, then chop and toss. ⏱️ 3 min
5. Onions back in, 4 piles, cheese on top. Roll over each pile, slide the spatula under, flip.

🔑 THE ONE THING THAT MATTERS
Half-freeze the steak first. It's the only way to slice it paper-thin.

✅ IT'S DONE WHEN
No red left on the steak and the cheese is melted.

🛟 Plan B: Out of steak? Ground beef cheesesteaks, same onions and cheese.
