SERVES

⏰ Heads-up: Thaw the puff pastry in the fridge the night before.

🧺 The must-haves

Put these on the counter before you start. Out of one? Use the swap next to it. That's it, keep going.

☐ Puff pastry (2 sheets)	Out? pie crust works, a little less flaky
☐ Apples	Out? any apples, or a few spoons of jam
☐ Brown sugar + cinnamon	Out? white sugar and cinnamon
☐ Egg	Out? brush with milk instead

✨ If we have them: lemon, butter, cornstarch, powdered sugar + milk for the glaze. Skip any of these.

🔥 How it goes

1. Pull the must-haves onto the counter. Oven to 400°F, parchment on a pan.
2. Cook diced apples with butter, brown sugar and cinnamon. Let it cool all the way. ⏱️ 8 min
3. Cut each pastry sheet into 8. Filling on 8, egg on the edges, the other 8 on top.
4. Press the edges with a fork, poke the tops, brush with egg. Bake. ⏱️ 20 min
5. Cool 10 minutes, then drizzle with powdered sugar mixed with a little milk.

🔑 THE ONE THING THAT MATTERS
Cool the filling all the way first. Warm filling melts the pastry and you lose the flakes.

✅ IT'S DONE WHEN
Puffed and deep golden brown.

🛟 Plan B: Out of apples? Ham and cheese pockets, same pastry.
