- [ ] Salt and pepper
- [ ] Red pepper flakes (optional)

⚡ First: Oven to 425°F before you start chopping.

GEAR

2 sheet pans · Big pot · Cutting board

🔥 Let's cook

1. Oven to 425°F. Line two sheet pans with foil. ⏱ 5 min
2. Cut the eggplant, zucchini, squash and peppers into 3/4-inch cubes, about the same size so they cook evenly. 🧒 Kids can do this
3. Toss the vegetables with most of the olive oil, the seasoning, 1 tsp salt and pepper. Spread in one layer across both pans. 🧒 Kids can do this
4. Roast until browned at the edges, stirring once halfway. ⏱ 30 min
5. Meanwhile, cook the chopped onion in the rest of the oil in a big pot over medium until soft. Add the garlic for 1 minute. ⏱ 10 min
6. Add the tomatoes and simmer while the vegetables roast. Taste: a pinch of sugar if it's sharp. ⏱ 15 min
7. Fold the roasted vegetables into the sauce and simmer together for 5 minutes. ⏱ 5 min
8. Top with parmesan and serve with warm crusty bread. 🧒 Kids can do this

CHEF'S SECRET

Roast, don't stew. Two pans with room between the pieces give browned, sweet vegetables instead of a soggy pot.

DINNER · FLIP SIDE

Ratatouille

👩‍🍳 Kitchen crew: kid jobs

- [ ] Wash the vegetables and cut the soft ones (zucchini, squash) with a kid knife
- [ ] Warm and slice the bread
- [ ] Toss the vegetables with oil and seasoning in a big bowl
- [ ] Sprinkle the parmesan and set the table

Knives, the stove and the oven: a grown-up stays right there. Steps marked 🧒 Kids can do this on the front are theirs to own.

⏰ MAKE IT AHEAD

Better the next day. Make it up to 2 days ahead and warm it gently on the stove.

🥡 LEFTOVERS

Lunch over pasta or rice, or warm it in a skillet, make wells and crack in eggs for a quick shakshuka.

🔁 SWAP IT

- Fresh tomatoes: 5–6 ripe ones, chopped, instead of the can
- Add Italian sausage or chicken for more protein
- Serve over polenta, pasta or rice instead of bread

🍽️ SERVE IT WITH

Crusty bread, or over pasta, polenta or rice

⏱️ Game plan: everything lands at once

60 min out	Oven to 425°F. Kids wash the vegetables.
50 min	Cut and toss the vegetables; into the oven.
30 min	Onion and garlic in the pot, then the tomatoes. Stir the pans.
10 min	Vegetables into the sauce. Kids warm the bread.
3 min	Kids set out parmesan and the bread.
Dinner	Serve it hot.
